Dear Colleagues,

Let me recommend to you, Sharon Sarles, my solution genie. I have twice brought in nationally known consultants but I was displeased with their services. I almost literally threw that last salesman out of my office! I have also used a variety of training strategies, but Sharon stands out as really different. She really listened to our needs, both mine and my employees, and designed strategies that were tailored to how we do things here at Morgan Printing.

I knew she could speak, she has an uncanny ability to understand the people dimension of a company and the even rarer ability to actually move things along. In the seminar, she made things fun, but she also got right to the point, so the employees were very pleased. I feel immensely heartened about reaching my business goals; I didn't let Sharon leave until I signed a contract to have her back.

Sharon's services as a consultant and trainer are a bargain at any price, but at her current rates, I cannot imagine any business owner or principal not rushing out to bring Sharon in immediately. She makes a real difference.

Sincerely,
